Dr. Mark Ouellette, ICAPE Director & Professor of English (mao417@lehigh.edu)

ENGL 095: Lehigh Life & Language for International Speakers

(ONLINE: 3 credits toward graduation)

Summer 2020: June 29th to August 7th

ICAPE Teachers: Ms. Kayla Landers & Ms. Mary Newbegin

This online summer course introduces international students to Lehigh University culture as they engage virtually with Lehigh teachers, staff members, and students and as they develop their academic communication skills. You will meet online with your teacher and other students as a whole class at times, and at other times you will meet individually with the teacher and in small groups online.

- Learn about Lehigh history and campus culture
- Get current Lehigh students to take you on virtual tours of campus
- Learn about the student resources for success, such as the Writing Center and Library
- Learn how to communicate in class discussion effectively
- Learn how to communicate with your teachers and your advisors effectively
- Learn how to make friends and communicating informally outside of class
- Learn how to give multi-modal presentations using innovative Lehigh technology
- Interview and engage with Lehigh staff, students, and professors
- And, you will participate in virtual Lehigh campus social events (e.g., a student social gathering, interactive games, etc.)

As a final group e-portfolio, students collaborate virtually on research about Lehigh University life and language.
