The Iacocca Global Village is a leadership development program like no other. Created through a partnership between Lee A. Iacocca and Lehigh University, the five week summer experience provides applied leadership and cross-cultural skills training to more than 75-100 young business leaders selected from over 45 countries. The intensive program delivers its learning through interactive sessions, multi-cultural teaming experiences, business and organizational visits, executive round table discussions, themed panel and seminar sessions; and visits to centers of business including New York city and Washington, DC. Iacocca Global Village attendees gain leadership and entrepreneurship skills, enhance business and sector knowledge, broaden their understanding of different cultures, and learn to build their own powerful global network. Since its inception in 1997, 2122 young leaders from 139 countries and territories in Asia, Middle East, Africa, the Americas, and Europe have attended and become part of the Global Village worldwide alumni network.

IACOCCA GLOBAL VILLAGE ON THE MOVE
The Iacocca Global Village on the Move programs are held in unique centers of business around the world and are focused on leadership, global networking, business knowledge and cultural understanding. Utilizing the expertise of the Iacocca Institute and our global partners, the five to ten day conferences allow participants to broaden their understanding of business success in select markets around the world. Prior conferences have taken place in Peru, Spain, Australia, United Arab Emirates, Malaysia, Italy, China, Russia and India.

IACOCCA GLOBAL ENTREPRENEURSHIP INTENSIVE
Lehigh University hosts this unique learning program each summer to educate 76 top high school students from the US and other countries. The four week experiential program focuses on the topics of global entrepreneurship, leadership, innovation, creativity, and doing business around the world. Students participate in core and focus sessions, country presentations with international students, large and small group seminars and workshops, and visits to businesses in New York City, Harrisburg and the Lehigh Valley. One of the highlights of the program includes Iacocca Global Entrepreneurship Intensive student marketing/business plan team projects with local business partners. To date, over 1161 American and international students have participated in the program.
